

Two different types of controls are fitted, depending on vehicle equipment.

1. The multi-information display is used if any other controllable items of special equipment are fitted, e.g. BC
2. The integrated radio and information system contains all control and display elements for radio and clock functions.

IRIS

Remove volume control button.

Press detent to one side and fold out IRIS.

Remove connector

MID

Remove volume control button.

Twist detent with Allen key approx. 90 °

Remove connector

